

Train is a verb.
If you want peace, train for peace

No
Postage
Required

Dear Prime Minister Carney,

We call on the Canadian government to establish and fund an independent, integrated Canadian Centre for Peace and Justice focused on research, policy, diplomacy, peace education, and training for Canadian civilians, military personnel, and the international community, as a fundamental part of Canada's increased commitment to defence and security.

Sincerely,

www.peacetraincanada.com

Prime Minister's Office
80 Wellington St.
Ottawa, Ontario
K1A 0A2

2026 Ottawa Itinerary

Oct 29, 1-4 pm: Peace Education Workshop: How to Increase Peace Education in Schools

- St Andrews Presbyterian Church, Ottawa, 82 Kent St.

Oct 30, 8:30 am-12:30 pm: Community Dialogue on Peace Education

- St Andrews Presbyterian Church, Ottawa, 82 Kent St.

Oct 30, 7-9pm: Panel discussion: "Canada's Military Spending Spree - The Real Cost for Canadians"

- Christ Church Cathedral, Ottawa, 414 Sparks St.

Oct 31, 11-3pm: Rally for Peace

- Walking from Peacekeeping Monument to Parliament Hill

Peace Train Canada

www.peacetraincanada.com

Calling on the Canadian government to establish and fund an independent, integrated Canadian Centre for Peace and Justice focused on research, policy, diplomacy, peace education, and training for Canadian civilians, police, military personnel, and the international community, as a fundamental part of Canada's increased commitment to defence and security.