

Music for Peace Trainers:

ONE DAY

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=XqvKDCP5-xE>

This mass choir rendition of One Day was produced in 2018, led by Koolulam in Haifa, Israel, in three languages (Hebrew, Arabic and English).

Chorus:

All my life I've been waiting for, I've been praying for

For the people to say

That we don't wanna fight no more, there'll be no more wars

And our children will play

ONE DAY (original) An Anthem of Hope

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=WRmBChOjZPs>

This is the youtube version of the original One Day song released in 2009 by American reggae singer, Matisyahu. In an interview with Spinner, Matisyahu told them:

"'One Day' is the song I've been wanting to make since I started my career. It is an anthem of hope with a big beat, the kind of song that makes you bob your head and open your heart at the same time."

PEACE TRAIN SUNG BY DOLLY PARTON

<https://m.youtube.com/watch?v=t5Jp1AwlBJY>

In 1996, Dolly Parton was putting together an album of cover songs for her new label. "I knew I wanted to include a song that would reflect my feelings about the world and the importance of peace and harmony," Parton said about the album. "I recalled what, to me, was the most meaningful song of a prior generation. It was written and performed by Cat Stevens during the turbulent times of 1971."

The cover version includes the back-up singers Ladysmith Black Mambazo, which gives it a country-South African fusion vibe.

PRAYER FOR PEACE

<https://www.facebook.com/don.conley.37/videos/3976719132559556>

This beautiful piano piece was composed by Bernadette's Train Tracker brother, Don Conley. Don lives on Salt Spring Island where he teaches piano and conducts the Salt Spring Singers Choir.
